There are two Lough Derg's in Ireland; Lough Derg in Donegal is the largest lake in the Republic of Ireland. It is the most southerly of the three Shannon lakes and its shoreline is shared by three counties, Clare on its west side, Tipperary to the east and Galway to the north.

Bronze Age (1,500 BC) stones known as "the Graves of the Leinstermen" as it is also reputed to be the location of an ambush by Brian Boru's soldiers on a passing party of Leinster Vikings.

Béal Boru is a large ringfort dating from early medieval times (c. 500 AD). The original fort was attacked and destroyed in 1116 when Kinvara Palace was also burned.

Killaloe is well known as the birthplace of Brian Boru (c. 941 - 1014), and High King of Ireland, (1002 - 1014). While Brian was High King, he ruled from Killaloe making it the "Capital of Ireland."

Clariford Park Has a 1000m running/walking trail, playing and training fields. It is open to pedestrians with ample parking for casual users.

Farmers' Market (Between the waters) a farmers' market of locally produced goods and crafts. Sundays between 11am and 3pm
